RE: 1:15-cv-04290-LAK

Dear Honorable Judge Kaplan,

Thank you for your reply. I understand very well that I am not qualified to appear in any court in New York. The manager of both companies who authorized me to contact you wants to know if we can receive some money from the accounts of both Companies, so that we could pay for the services of the US attorney/s we intend to engage with the lawsuit that is currently pending before your court. After making a quick research I was convinced that the legal fees of law firms in New York in particular are very high. I was told by a fellow attorney, who is qualified to appear in New York courts, that for each company's representation the legal fees would range somewhere between $ 150,000 (one hundred and fifty thousand) and $ 200,000 (two hundred thousand) – that makes minimum of $ 300,000 (three hundred thousand). Mrs. Velikova does not have such money to pay for the attorney's fees and for the traveling and hotel for me for a week time in NY. Unfortunately, no attorney, let alone a law firm, is willing to take on the case and defend the two companies without being paid at least $ 200,000 (two hundred thousand) in advance.

We are humbly requesting the release of some of the money (at least $200,000) so that we can employ at least 1 attorney to represent and defend the interests of both companies in court. Otherwise, the two companies will not be represented at all at the trial.

Respectfully Yours,

Stanislav Hristov
